(ARTICLE II)

A. NONPARTISAN POLICY

The League of Women Voters Roseville Area (hereafter referred to as the “League”) is a nonpartisan political organization. In its education role the League provides nonpartisan information on the election process, candidates, and public policy issues. In its advocacy role the League seeks to impact legislation and policy based on nonpartisan League positions that have been developed through study and consensus by League members. The League never supports or opposes any political party or candidate for elected public office.

This nonpartisan approach, along with careful study of issues, forms the basis of the League’s credibility, and all members share responsibility for preserving the League’s reputation for fairness and objectivity. League members are encouraged to be informed participants in political activity.

Partisan public officials are those publicly elected and candidates for public office who seek party endorsement.

Members:

To avoid any appearance that the League favors a party or candidate, it is important that members do not mention their League connection when expressing party or candidate preferences.

League members should avoid moderating during League candidate forums held in their own voting area.

Board members:

Board members should limit their involvement in public political activities.

They shall not indicate political affiliations or candidate preferences in any social or other media where their membership on the League board is also prominently identified.

Candidates for elective partisan public office may not serve on the League’s board.

A board member who decides to run for a partisan public office shall immediately submit in writing a dated resignation or leave of absence request to the board. The board shall fill the vacant position as soon as possible. The position change shall be published in the VOTER in a way that avoids the appearance of endorsing the board member’s candidacy and along with a statement regarding the League’s non-partisan policy.

As long as they do not make or imply any connection to their League board position, board members may participate in a wide variety of individual political activities.

President and voter service chair(s):

Shall not publicly disagree with or work against an established League position.

Shall not participate in party politics by holding party office, US congressional district board member, or precinct chair.

If there is uncertainty regarding the appropriateness of an activity in relationship to this policy, the board shall be consulted for a final decision.

Reviewal of non-partisan policy

The League’s non-partisan policy will be reviewed at the first meeting of each program year. Its main points should regularly be communicated to the public. New members will be told about the League’s non-partisan policy during their orientation to the League. When nominated for board positions, members will also be provided a copy of this policy
